

Kym Anderson

Kym Anderson is George Gollin Professor Emeritus at Adelaide University and founding Executive Director of its Wine Economics Research Centre. He is also an Honorary Professor of Economics at the Australian National University's Crawford School of Public Policy, a Vice-President of the American Association of Wine Economists and a Co-Editor of its Journal of Wine Economics. He has worked also at the GATT (now WTO) Secretariat in Geneva (1990-92) and at the World Bank as Lead Economist (Trade Policy) during 2004-07. During 2000-05 he served as a non-executive Director on the Board of Australia's Grape and Wine Research and Development Corporation (now part of Wine Australia). Since graduating from the University of Chicago and Stanford University he has published more than 40 books and 350 academic journal articles or chapters in others' edited books, plus dozens of articles in wine industry journals. His wine books include Which Winegrape Varieties are Grown Where? A Global Empirical Picture (University of Adelaide Press, 2013 and revised and updated 2020), Growth and Cycles in Australia's Wine Industry: A Statistical Compendium, 1843 to 2013 (University of Adelaide Press, 2015), The International Economics of Wine (World Scientific, 2020), Wine Globalization: A New Comparative History (Cambridge University Press, 2018), and Global Wine Markets, 1860 to 2016: A Statistical Compendium (University of Adelaide Press, 2018). The latter two were co-winners of the 2018 prize for the best wine economics books awarded by the Paris-based Organisation Internationale de la Vigne et du Vin (OIV). The first edition of the Which Winegrape Varieties ... book won the 2014 OIV Prize in the best viticulture books category. All the University of Adelaide Press books are freely downloadable as ebooks (as are their underlying data) at <https://economics.adelaide.edu.au/wine-economics/>. In 2024 he was commissioned by Wine Australia to provide state and federal Ministers of Agriculture with an independent review of Australia's Wine Industry Crisis and Ways Forward (<https://www.agriculture.gov.au/sites/default/files/documents/wine-industry-crisis-ways-forward.pdf>). He is a recipient of an Honorary Doctor of Economics degree from the University of Adelaide and a Distinguished Alumni Award from the University of New England. In 2015 he became a Companion of the Order of Australia (AC), in part for his contribution to the grape and wine industry.
